

Living Well with Dementia in York Region

A conference for caregivers, health care professionals, church leaders and those interested in learning about the care needs of caregivers and their loved ones on the dementia journey.

Friday January 26th, 2018 | 9 a.m. - 1 p.m.

McConaghy Seniors' Centre, Richmond Hill, ON

Memory Lane Home Living Inc., a not-for-profit dementia initiative, in collaboration with the York Region community, is hosting this half day conference to explore the care components for both caregivers and their loved ones to live well with dementia. We bring together experts, leaders and practitioners to share their insight on various care aspects, including the Dementia Care Strategy.

In addition to our distinguished speakers, exhibitors from York region will provide information on the various care services they offer as they relate to those with a dementia diagnosis and their loved one.
